

LADY 2017 SUMMER PROGRAM
OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE APRIL 11, 2017

TOKYO, JAPAN—LADY (Leadership and Action for Determined Youth) officially announces that we will hold our second annual Summer Leadership Conference will be held as a three-day overnight program on August, 9-11 at the Chiba Prefectural Tega no Oka Youth Nature House (千葉県立手賀の丘少年自然の家). As a continuation of our mission, we intend to empower young Japanese women to achieve their own goals so that they may become the future leaders of Japan. We will recruit 30 new female Japanese high school students and connect them with 10 Japanese college student mentors from universities in Japan and abroad, as well as 10 female guest speakers from various careers. Through lectures, workshops, and discussions facilitated by female role models, high school participants will be equipped with the essential leadership skills and critical perspectives on gender issues necessary to tackle the 21st century as ambitious women.

College Student Mentor Application will go live on April 10th and close on April 30th 11:59PM EST (April 31st 12:59PM JST). Undergraduate students who do not identify as a cisgender male are applicable. Recent graduates (Spring 2017) are also welcome to apply. English fluency is not a requirement.

High School Participant Application will go live on May 15th and close on June 17th 10:59AM EST (June 18th 11:59PM JST). High school students who do not identify as a cisgender male are applicable. Recent graduates (Spring 2017) are also welcome to apply. English fluency is not a requirement.

The LADY Organizational Committee has expanded to include four new college student directors and two high school student interns. The team is currently working on establishing financial sponsorships and developing program content.

For our previous programs, we have received sponsorships from a variety of institutions, namely the Harvard College Japan Initiative, the American Center Japan (US Embassy in Tokyo), COSMO Public Relations Consulting, and Morgan Stanley.
